Honey Hunting

Honey hunting involves robbing honey from wild bee colonies and is one of the most ancient human activities still practiced by aboriginal societies in certain parts of Nepal.

Robbing honey from wild bee colonies is usually done by subduing the bees with smoke and breaking open the tree or rocks where the colony is located. The process is a once in a lifetime spectacle, if you can spot it.

Thamel

Thamel is a popular tourist destination in Kathmandu, Nepal. Thamel has been the centre of the tourist industry in Kathmandu for over two decades.

Thamel also acts as the pre-base camp for mountaineers. It boasts a wide range of mountaineering gear shops, foreign money exchange booths, pubs, clubs and nightlife along with the numerous travel agents, and guest houses. All in all, Thamel is home to a wide range of audience of the nepalese population for entertainment and employment purposes.

Rotary Club of Thamel

Rotary Club of Thamel is a member of Rotary International, an association of business and professional leaders who provide humanitarian services, promote high ethical standards in all vocations, and help build goodwill and peace in the world.

Rotary Club of Thamel is contributing to prepare volunteers to cope with emergencies in inner city of Kathmandu. The club's microfinancing and biogas projects have transformed the lives of many villagers. The club runs free health clinics, eye camps, drinking water and irrigation projects. Other activities include girl child education, tree plantation, awareness of global warming, career counseling and stress management. The club intends to develop self-sustainable projects for capacity building and professional development.

Souvenirs of Nepal

Thangka

Thangka, when created properly, performs several different functions. Images of deities can be used as teaching tools when depicting the life of Buddha, describing historical events concerning important Lamas, or retelling myths associated with other deities.

Bodhi Seeds Prayer Beads

Bodhi Seeds Prayer Beads features a variety of prayer beads and wrist malas. Mala beads are used in many religions, including Tibetan Buddhism and Hinduism. Buddhist beads are featured in different styles including Bodhi Seeds, Turquoise and other gemstone prayer beads, yak bone prayer beads, and sandalwood prayer beads.

Singing Bowl

Singing bowls originate from the Himalayas and are found throughout Nepal, Tibet and Northern India. Each handmade bowl is in itself unique. The natural and harmonious sound emitted by singing bowls is used to invoke a deep state of relaxation which assists meditation. Each singing bowl comes with a wooden stick.

Khukuri

The Khukuri is a traditional Nepali knife used in many of Nepal's historical wars. The shape varies a great deal from being straight to highly curved with angled or smooth spines. There are substantial variations in dimensions and blade thickness depending on intended tasks as well as the region of origin and the Kami that produced it.

Bag-Chaal

Bag-Chaal is an ancient strategic game that originated in Nepal. Two players take control of the tigers and goats respectively. Four tigers surround twenty goats. Tigers are required to hunt the goats while the goats need to block the tiger's movement.

Puppet

Puppet like this one of the Living Goddess 'Kumari' is loved widely by tourists as a souvenir from Nepal. Such puppets reflect Nepalese cultures, lifestyles and religion. Tourists can get a wide variety of Nepalese puppets representing different forms of Gods and Goddesses found in Nepal. Especially, string puppets of masked dancers are the most popular.

Pashmina

Nepal is also known for its finely woven Pashmina shawls and sweaters which are indigenous and unique products of Nepal. They are hand-made from wool sheared off mountain goats that are found in the mountainous regions of the Himalayas. This soft wool is first hand spun into thin and even Pashmina yarn and then it is woven into fabric with the handloom.

Carpet

Tibetan rug making is an ancient, traditional craft. Tibetan rugs are traditionally made from Tibetan highland sheep's wool. Tibetans use rugs for many purposes ranging from flooring to wall hanging to horse saddles, though the most common use is as a seating carpet.
